

3.2 Are the details of policies / decisions, which affect public, informed to them[Section 4(1) (c)]

3.2.1	Publish all relevant facts while formulating important policies or announcing decisions which affect public to make the process more interactive - Policy decisions/ legislations taken in the previous one year	The Institute functions under the policy framework, rules, regulations and guidelines issued by ICAR & all relevant information are published & available on the institute website and ICAR official website.
3.2.2	Publish all relevant facts while formulating important policies or announcing decisions which affect public to make the process more interactive - Outline the Public consultation process	The Institute obtains feedback and suggestions from stakeholders including farmers, researchers, students, scientific committees, extension agencies, industry representatives and the general public through meetings, workshops, seminars, training programmes, interface meetings, exhibitions and outreach activities.
3.2.3	Publish all relevant facts while formulating important policies or announcing decisions which affect public to make the process more interactive- Outline the arrangement for consultation before formulation of policy	All relevant information are published & available on the institute website and ICAR official website.